The Council of Europe and the European Language Portfolio

Ireland is a member of the Council of Europe, which makes it part of a family of 45 countries stretching all the way from Iceland to Azerbaijan. The millions of young people who live in those countries share many experiences and interests, but also have different languages, cultures and histories.

The Council of Europe aims to help you to understand and respect other people and the things that make them different. Your European Language Portfolio is designed to help you learn new languages and understand new cultures.

The ELP allows you

- to record what you can do in languages, including your mother tongue
- to understand what you need to learn so that you can join in all the classes and activities in your school
- to record what you have learnt well and what you need to study more
- to organize your work so that you can use it to remind yourself about what you have already learnt
- to help you learn the English that you need for other school subjects
- if you change your school, to show your new teachers what you can already do in English

The ELP allows your teachers

- to see what languages you already know
- to help you plan what you need to learn for different subjects

The ELP allows your parents

- to see how you are progressing in learning languages

This model conforms to common principles and guidelines.

		A1	A2	B1	B2	C1	C2
U N D E R S T A N D I N G	Listening	I can understand familiar words and very basic phrases concerning myself, my family and immediate concrete surroundings when people speak slowly and clearly.	I can understand phrases and the highest frequency vocabulary related to areas of most immediate personal relevance (e.g. very basic personal and family information, shopping, local area, employment). I can catch the main point in short, clear, simple messages and announcements.	I can understand the main points of clear standard speech on familiar matters regularly encountered in work, school, leisure, etc. I can understand the main point of many radio or TV programmes on current affairs or topics of personal or professional interest when the delivery is relatively slow and clear.	I can understand extended speech and lectures and follow even complex lines of argument provided the topic is reasonably familiar. I can understand most TV news and current affairs programmes. I can understand the majority of films in standard dialect.	I can understand extended speech even when it is not clearly structured and when relationships are only implied and not signalled explicitly. I can understand television programmes and films without too much effort.	I have no difficulty in understanding any kind of spoken language, whether live or broadcast, even when delivered at fast native speed, provided. I have some time to get familiar with the accent.
	Reading	I can understand familiar names, words and very simple sentences, for example on notices and posters or in catalogues.	I can read very short, simple texts. I can find specific, predictable information in simple everyday material such as advertisements, prospectuses, menus and timetables and I can understand short simple personal letters.	I can understand texts that consist mainly of high frequency everyday or job-related language. I can understand the description of events, feelings and wishes in personal letters.	I can read articles and reports concerned with contemporary problems in which the writers adopt particular attitudes or viewpoints. I can understand contemporary literary prose.	I can understand long and complex factual and literary texts, appreciating distinctions of style. I can understand specialised articles and longer technical instructions, even when they do not relate to my field.	I can read with ease virtually all forms of the written language, including abstract, structurally or linguistically complex texts such as manuals, specialised articles and literary works.
S P E A K I N G	Spoken Interaction	I can interact in a simple way provided the other person is prepared to repeat or rephrase things at a slower rate of speech and help me formulate what I'm trying to say. I can ask and answer simple questions in areas of immediate need or on very familiar topics.	I can communicate in simple and routine tasks requiring a simple and direct exchange of information on familiar topics and activities. I can handle very short social exchanges, even though I can't usually understand enough to keep the conversation going myself.	I can deal with most situations likely to arise whilst travelling in areas where the language is spoken. I can enter unprepared into conversation on topics that are familiar, of personal interest or pertinent to everyday life (e.g. family, hobbies, work, travel and current events).	I can interact with a degree of fluency and spontaneity that makes regular interaction with native speakers quite possible. I can take an active part in discussion in familiar contexts, accounting for and sustaining my views.	I can express myself fluently and spontaneously without much obvious searching for expressions. I can use language flexibly and effectively for social and professional purposes. I can formulate ideas and opinions with precision and relate my contribution skilfully to those of other speakers.	I can take part effortlessly in any conversation of discussion and have a good familiarity with idiomatic expressions and colloquialisms. I can express myself fluently and convey finer shades of meaning precisely. If I do have a problem I can backtrack and restructure around the difficulty so smoothly that other people are hardly aware of it.
	Spoken Production	I can use simple phrases and sentences to describe where I live and people I know.	I can use a series of phrases and sentences to describe in simple terms my family and other people, living conditions, my educational background and my present or most recent job.	I can connect phrases in a simple way in order to describe experiences and events, my dreams, hopes and ambitions. I can briefly give reasons and explanations for opinions and plans. I can narrate a story or relate the plot of a book or film and describe my reactions.	I can present clear, detailed descriptions on a wide range of subjects related to my field of interest. I can explain a viewpoint on a topical issue giving the advantages and disadvantages of various options.	I can present clear, detailed descriptions of complex subjects integrating sub-themes, developing particular points and rounding off with an appropriate conclusion.	I can present a clear, smoothly-flowing description or argument in a style appropriate to the context and with an effective logical structure which helps the recipient to notice and remember significant points.
W R I T I N G	Writing	I can write a short, simple postcard, for example sending holiday greetings. I can fill in forms with personal details, for example entering my name, nationality and address on a hotel registration form.	I can write short, simple notes and messages. I can write a very simple personal letter, for example thanking someone for something.	I can write simple connected text on topics which are familiar or of personal interest. I can write personal letters describing experiences and impressions.	I can write clear, detailed text on a wide range of subjects related to my interests. I can write an essay or report, passing on information or giving reasons in support of or against a particular point of view. I can write letters highlighting the personal significance of events and experiences.	I can express myself in clear, well-structured text, expressing points of view at some length. I can write about complex subjects in a letter, an essay or a report, underlining what I consider to be the salient issues. I can select a style appropriate to the reader in mind.	I can write clear, smoothly-flowing text in an appropriate style. I can write complex letters, reports or articles which present a case with an effective logical structure which helps the recipient to notice and remember significant points. I can write summaries and reviews of professional or literary works.

		A1 BREAKTHROUGH	A2 WAYSTAGE	B1 THRESHOLD
U N D E R S T A N D I N G	Listening 	I can understand words and phrases about myself, my family and school and simple questions and instructions.	I can understand most instructions given inside and outside school, and can follow topics covered in the different subject classes.	I can understand detailed instructions given in school, the main points of topics presented in different classes, and short films about things I am familiar with. I can follow most conversations between other students without difficulty.
	Reading 	I can recognize the letters of the alphabet and can understand signs and simple notices in the school and on the way to school. I can understand words on labels or posters in the classroom and some of the words and phrases in a new piece of text.	I can understand short texts on familiar subjects and can use the alphabet to find items in lists (e.g., a name in a telephone book).	I can understand descriptions of events, feelings and wishes and can use comprehension questions to find specific answers in a piece of text. I can also use key words, diagrams and illustrations to help me understand texts I am reading. I can follow written instructions for carrying out school activities.

How to monitor your language learning in five easy steps

- 1 Find out what you have to learn. Look at the checklists with your language teacher and make notes about any difficulties you have in your subject classes
- 2 Write down your targets © on page 14
- 3 Think about how you can learn these things best and note that on page 13
- 4 Then use your own 'best ways of learning' to achieve your targets
- 5 Record your progress on the checklists with your language teacher's help:
  - * I can do this with a lot of help
  - ** I can do this with a little help
  - *** I can do this with no help

Remember! When you don't achieve a target fully, don't worry. What you don't know can become part of your next target.

Dossier

This dossier contains:

- Examples of my work,
- Word lists for different subjects
- Notes to remind me about language use

Organising the Dossier

It is important to organise the Dossier so that different parts can be accessed for support in class, for revision and so on. It is a good idea to put dividers between the sections.

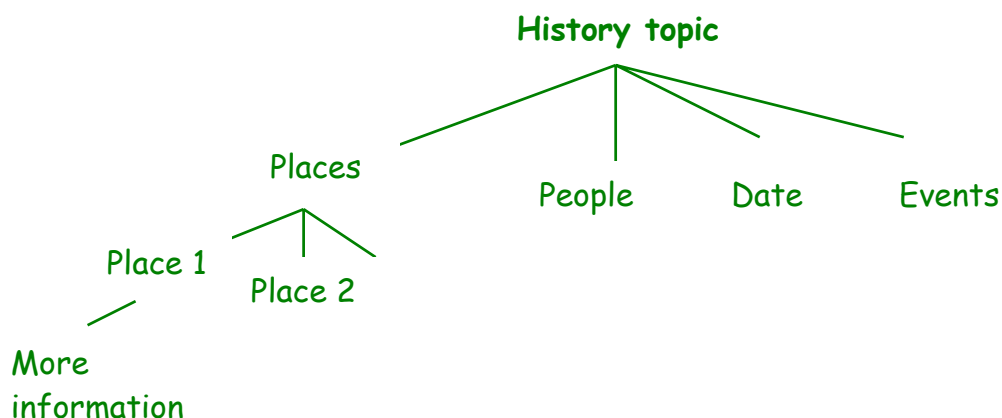

The Dossier may be organised by topic, school subject (English, History etc.) or category (vocabulary, examples of text etc.).

Dossier contents

Section	Description
Example: 4	Vocabulary for Unit 7 - Geography

Ways of recording vocabulary and information

Example 4: Categorising information and vocabulary

This version of the European Language Portfolio (ELP) was developed by Integrate Ireland Language and Training for use in Irish post-primary schools with non-English speaking students who are learning the language of the host community.

The self-assessment grid of the Common European Framework of Reference (© Council of Europe) on page 6 summarizes six levels of second/foreign language proficiency from beginner to very advanced. Language support provided to non-English speaking students in post-primary education in Ireland is concerned with the first three levels (A1, A2 and B1).

This ELP was designed to reflect the English language demands of the Irish post-primary curriculum. The graded curriculum for language support is set out in the English Language Proficiency Benchmarks for non-English speaking pupils at post-primary level (2003), available on the Integrate Ireland Language and Training web site (www.iilt.ie).
